Minnesota Public Library Statistics
1992

Introduction by Jan Feye-Stukas

This issue of Minnesota Libraries provides descriptive data about Minnesota public libraries in 1992. Each year, pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 134.31. Subdivision 4, every legally established public library and public library system in Minnesota provides an annual report to the Office of Library Development and Services. It is from the 1992 annual reports that the data reported here has been compiled.

The Population Served

The population served numbers for this issue are from the 1991 estimates. The population served by public libraries in Minnesota is 100% of the state's population, which in the 1991 census estimate was 4,416,292.

All but .5 of the population are served by libraries participating in regional library systems.

The number of public library building outlets in the state increased from 352 in 1991 to 353 in 1992. The additional library is the Shoreview Branch of the Ramsey County Library which is in the suburban metropolitan area.

Of the 353 public library buildings, 230 are branches of a city, county or regional library; 20 are headquarters or main libraries of a city, county, or regional library; and 103 are single building library administrative units. The number of bookmobiles remained the same at 23.

The number of library administrative units remained at 136 in 1992.

Use of Public Libraries

The use of public libraries increased again in 1992, both in total and on a per capita basis. Statewide total charged circulation increased 3.4% over 1991 to 42,314,551. Juvenile circulation, which is a subset of total circulation increased 4.14% to 17,313,551 which is 40.9% of the total charged circulation.

Again, the number of libraries reporting in-library use of materials also increased significantly which resulted in a 40.3% rise in the total reported. Reports of library attendance or visits also increased so that the total number reported rose by 10.8%. A greater number of libraries also reported reference transactions so that number increased as well by 7.8%.

Attendance at library sponsored programs increased by 9.6%. Attendance at programs specifically targeted for children also increased 19%. Statewide 732,288 children attended programs at public libraries.

Public Library Staff

The number of full-time equivalent (FTE) staff working in public libraries decreased from 2,186.9 in 1991 to 2,170.6 in 1992. Of the 16.3 FTE positions cut, 10.1 were in the Twin Cities metropolitan area (primarily St. Paul Public Library) with the remaining 6.2 coming primarily from the Arrowhead, Kitchigami and Pioneerland regions.

The number of professional librarians with a Masters Degree from a graduate library education program accredited by the American Library Association also declined back to slightly below where it was in 1990. The areas that had gained positions in 1991, showed the decreases in 1992. The metropolitan area lost 9.3 FTE professional librarian positions while greater Minnesota lost 8.3 FTE professional positions, almost all of them in the Arrowhead region.

In 1991, 70.6% of the professional librarians in public libraries were in the metropolitan area. In 1992, this figure increased to 71.4%.

Public Library Collections

The number of items in public library collections in 1992 again increased only slightly, up only 1.65% over 1991. The number of books in Minnesota public libraries increased only 1.28% to 11,819,288. Books dropped slightly as a percent of the materials counted in public libraries, from 73.8% of the total to 73.5%. Other print materials (pamphlets, government documents, unbound periodicals, etc.) were reported to have decreased 3.74% and now account for only 18.9% of all materials. The number of periodical subscriptions increased 4.33% to 28,429 subscriptions statewide.

The total number of audio-visual items increased 7.6% to 786,217. Audio-visual items in 1992 constitue 4.89% of library collections statewide, up from 4.62% in 1991. The formats showing the most growth on a a numercial basis were video cassettes, compact discs, audio cassettes, and multi-media kits.

Library Automation

The move to automate many library functions continues at an every increasing rate. In order to begin to document this, questions were asked in the 1992 relating to the level of automation in Minnesota's public libraries. The table below gives the status of library automation at the end of 1992.

Service/Function	Number of Library Buildings in 1992	% of Total Librararies
Catalog: Microfiche	153	43%
Catalog: CD-ROM	13	4%
Catalog: On-Line	137	39%
Dial-Up Access to Catalog	58	16%
Automated Circulation	157	44%

The Sharing of Library Resources

The inter-library sharing of library materials increased in 1992, but not quite back to the level of 1990. The total number of interlibrary loan requests handled by the public libraries in the state were 293,534 which is a 12.5% increase over the 260,798 reported in 1991, yet only slightly less than the amount reported in 1990, which was 273,749. The number 'not filled' also increase greatly over 1991, yet was half the number unfilled in 1989. The chart below illustrates the numbers of items reported and the change over 1991.

Public Library Funding

Funding for public library operations in 1992 continued to increase but at a rate less than in previous years. The increase was only 3.6% over 1991. Because of the increased population served, this amounted to only a 2.3% increase per capita. Total public library income in Minnesota was $95,129,007. Of this amount, local government sources increased funding 3.38%, to $81,420,425, which accounted for 85.58% of the total income. This represented only .2% less than the 85.78% of the total in 1991, but nevertheless continues a trend of local support declining slightly each year as a percent of total income for public libraries.

State funding for public library service showed a significant increase of 8.1%. The actual appropriation from the state legislature was less than but because of differences in fiscal years, the amount reported for 1992 was more. The public libraries reported less federal funding, down by 5.4%. Again, the amount available from federal sources was only slightly less, but the amount reported was much less because of the scheduling of the grant payments and the differences in fiscal years. The total amount that public libraries received from "Other" sources also increased, from $5,768,856 in 1991 to $5,988,091 in 1992, or 3.8%. Other income represented 6.3% of the total income which was about the same as 1991.

Not included in this tabulation of operating receipts reported by public libraries were the in-kind or indirect receipts/expenditures made by others (primarily local governments) on behalf of libraries, but not included in the library's budget) or amounts received from 'other libraries'. The later amounts are excluded to avoid double counting of the same funds.

Public Library Expenditures

Total statewide public library expenditures increased only 2.41%, from $90,536,023 in 1991 to $92,719,113 in 1992. Within that amount, 68.8% was spent of personnel, 14.9% on library materials, and 16.2 on other. As a percent of the whole, total personnel expenditures increased 4.42% over the previous. Salary costs increased only 3.47% while fringe benefits costs increased 9.34%.

Expenditures on library materials increased only 2.83% and declined as a percent of all expenditures from 15.08% in 1991 to 14.9% in 1992. Within that total costs, the expenditures on "Other print materials" increased a dramatic 23% although the actual dollar amount was only $35,591. Expenditures on "extension of access" which means on-line data base fees, etc. also increased significantly (9.02%) in 1992 but actually returned to levels comparable to 1990 after an 8% drop in 1991.

Expenditures on books rose 5.89% and expenditures on non-print materials dropped slightly. Subscriptions expenditures decreased a significant 19.8% but as in previous years reflects the varying cycle of long term periodical expenditures.

Other expenditures by Minnesota public libraries increased only .6% from $15,135,412 to $15,226,990 in 1992. The largest dollar increase in the "Other" category was for continuing Education, up 123.19% over the previous year, from $112,405 in 1991 to $250,878 in 1992. The other large increase in expenditures actual dollars was for Telecommunications which increased 9.27%, from $772,887 in 1992 to $844,5354 in 1992. Capital expenditures were in 1992 were 31.81% less than in 1991. The libraries with the greatest capital expenditures were St. Paul Public (primarily for the Merriam Park Branch), Hennepin County (primarily for the Southdale renovation), Washington County, Owatonna, and Crosby.

Arrangement and Content of Tables

The arrangement of tables is the virtually the same as that of last year. Following the Summary pages, the first section shows personnel and service data for all individual library buildings, bookmobiles and the administrative units. They are listed in alphabetical order first by system name, then by the name of the branch for consolidated systems, or by the name of the member library administrative unit for federated systems. System totals are at the beginning of each section.

The next section shows the financial data for all the library administrative units. Again, this section is arranged alphabetically by system and then by member library administrative unit. All per capita amounts were calculated using 1991 population estimates from the Office of the State Demographer.
